

Dear Sirs/Ms:

The move that Sinclair is proposing to take by airing the stolen honor is a violation of the obligation stations have to provide fair news coverage. If they are going to show what evidently is a pro-Bush film then in the same time frame, a film such as "Going Upriver" should be shown. Probably neither should be on the airwaves during the final days of the election.

If they persist in unbalanced news coverage, pull their license now or when it comes up for renewal.
